PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Town Council welcomes citizen comments on issues not on the agenda for up to five minutes per person. The Chair may limit any public input to insure that the Council is able to complete the agenda and maintain the decorum of the meeting. Public comment must be respectful, not repetitive and not of a personal nature. When appropriate, the Chair may allow for reasonable input from the public during the meeting on items appearing on the agenda or introduced. Individuals desiring items on the Council agenda for discussion or action must contact the Town Manager's Office at 472-5242 by 4:30 PM on the Thursday prior to the meeting. The Chair approves the final agenda. The Council normally meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month. Anyone with a cell phone is asked to turn it off or put it on silent. Anyone with a cell phone that goes off during the meeting is expected to leave. Anyone with a Blackberry or similar type device is asked to turn it off. The Council will not hear any new items after 10pm. The Council has the ability to waive their rules.
