

TOWN OF BEDFORD
TOWN COUNCIL INTERVIEWS FOR PFAS COMMISSION MINUTES
September 11, 2019
BEDFORD MEETING ROOM
10 MEETINGHOUSE ROAD

Members Present: Bill Duschatko (Chairman), Melissa Stevens (Vice Chair) and Councilors Denise Ricciardi, Phil Greazzo, Dave Gilbert, Chris Bandazian, Catherine Rombeau, and. Also present was Town Manager Rick Sawyer.

The interviews convened at 7:00 PM.

Councilor Bandazian recused himself from the interviews and left the table.

Chris Bandazian

He was pleased that so many were interested in serving on the PFAS Commission. He gave a summary of his background, why he's interested and what his involvement in PFAS has been.

Paul Brock

He gave summary of his background. He previously served on the School Board. He's a member of the Bedford CERT team and the Bedford Education Foundation and an Assistant Town Moderator. He is retired and is willing and has the time to serve. He talked about why he is interested in the position.

James Chithalen

He recently moved to Bedford. He gave a history of his education and college degrees. He currently works for the State and it involves a lot of PFAS work. He mentioned that he has talked to his boss and he would be able to get the time off of work to attend meetings if he had to. He didn't believe there would be a conflict.

Susan Broadwater

She has been a resident of Bedford for over 20 years. She has a nursing background. She lives one mile north of Greenview Parkway. She's concerned about the PFAS issue and is willing to put in the time and effort if appointed to the commission.

Emma Paradis

She ran for Town Council and her platform was PFOA and PFAS. She was interested in serving on the commission because of all her personal interests on this issue. She has been a strong advocate for herself and all of the residents in Town. She has educated herself on all aspects of the issue, has attended meetings and has been in contact with various officials at NH DES.

The Council adjourned the interviews at 7:45 PM.

These minutes were recorded by Dawn Boufford.
